

Supplemental Financial Aid Form

2008-2009 Academic Year

The Latin School of Chicago is committed to distributing equitably its financial aid funds to families with demonstrated need. To be considered for financial aid, applicant families must supply all the necessary data on or before the specified deadlines. This form and the results from the application submitted to FACTS Grant & Aid Assessment provide the Financial Aid Committee with the information necessary to make an informed award decision based on each family's unique financial circumstances. All questions must be answered. If the answer to a particular question is zero, please enter a zero in the appropriate space.

The Supplemental Financial Aid Form and additional information must be received by The Latin School of Chicago no later than February 1, 2008.
